A number of West Michigan schools were honored Wednesday by state Surgeon General Kimberlydawn Wisdom and the Michigan Action for Healthy Kids Coalition for their work supporting healthy eating and physical activity in students.

The Eat Healthy + Play Hard = Smart Students statewide conference in Traverse City recognized schools from Kent County including Buchanan Elementary, Harrison Park Elementary, Central High School and North Park Schools in Grand Rapids, and the Kent Education Center-Mayfield.

Allegan County schools honored include Douglas Elementary and Saugatuck's middle and high schools.

Ottawa County's St. Mary's Catholic School in Spring Lake and Montcalm County's Greenville high and middle schools also were recognized.
