Program & Waiver Considerations

- Permitted for breakfast through SBP and lunch through NSLP for days when instruction is offered.
 - Usual counting, claiming, and charging is required.
- State agencies may require a plan so that students are charged correctly and do not receive meals at multiple sites.
 - Students may be limited to receiving meals at the school where they are enrolled.

- Permitted for breakfast through SBP and lunch through NSLP on days when instruction is offered.
 - Usual counting, claiming, and charging is required.
- Refer to state and local guidelines for group size, physical distancing, and safety recommendations.

Other Notes

- Potential gap in service for schools starting after Labor Day
 - Most summer meals waivers expire August 31st
- Four day school weeks
 - NSLP/SBP are not options on the “fifth day” without instruction
 - CACFP At-Risk is an option but requires enrichment activities
- Meal service will be limited to students enrolled in the district
- States may be applying for additional waivers
