

NATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT WELLNESS COALITION

2026 Annual In-Person Convening

Where the Country's Best Ideas Take the Stage

Share what's working. Shape what's next. Build what's possible.

The 2026 NSDWC Annual In-Person Convening gathers district leaders in Memphis to exchange practical ideas, learn from peers, and build connections that advance student health and well-being.

What you'll take home.

Actionable strategies for district-wide impact

Learn how successful health and wellness initiatives can scale across schools.

Real-world insights from district peers

Hear how district leaders are creating healthier schools, adapting along the way, and turning lessons into action.

New perspectives on shared challenges

Explore approaches to strengthening student well-being and building sustainable systems that support children's health.

Connections that continue beyond Memphis

Develop meaningful relationships with district leaders facing similar opportunities and challenges.
